

Chipotle Serves Healthy Fast Food

Check out this great ABC News Nightline interview with Steve Eells, Founder of Chipotle Mexican Grill:

If you haven't already eaten at a Chipotle, take your next opportunity to try their fabulous food. It's the best tasting and healthiest fast food around! Eells cares about the food served at Chipotle from start to finish, literally, not only for the people, but also the animals. Much of the food served in Chipotle is organic as well.
